Old/New Business

Mike N9UA reminded members to submit their logs for the club DX Challenge.
John NZ9Z informed members of the 4S7RS Sri Lanka Echolink net daily at 9:30 a.m. local time. John asked members for any leads on a low-cost shipping source to California for Sri Lanka donations.

Dick W9TA presented John with a Kenwood TM-271A, a donation from the Sheboygan County Amateur Radio Club.

Anne KC9YL reported that the club call trustee has been transferred and has been renewed.

Tom shared the club's concerns of the recent ARRL controversy regarding member sanctions and proposals. The club has sent letters to the ARRL and Central Division director, voicing disapproval of recent censures and proposed policy changes, which are reported to be voted on at the ARRL Board meeting this weekend. Tom also noted that the Board President Tom Gallagher NY2RF has announced his resignation, and will step down on March 2.

May's NEWDXA meeting will feature a Skype presentation by Tim Duffy K3LR, COO of DX Engineering.

Contest Report
